The Fine Arts Society of Peoria was founded in 1962 to offer a guided series of lectures and other programs devoted to the exploration of the arts and to invite to the community distinguished speakers who are experts in their respective disciplines. This year, we are proud to present our 60th season of programs for exploring, expanding, and enlivening the fine arts.

Lectures are presented on the second Thursday of the month from October through December and February through May. Annual individual membership is $40.00. Annual Family membership is $65.00. To learn more about the Fine Arts Society, including information about lecture topics, dates, and locations, visit our website at www.fineartsociety.net or email us at membership@fineartsociety.net.
